

2007 Missouri River Festival of the Arts Historic Thespian Hall – Boonville, Missouri

We would like to invite our Bike Tour participants to also join us for Festival performances. With each paid registration we are offering a 25% Discount on Missouri River Festival of the Arts Tickets

(Tickets regularly $20 will be available for $15. Limit 2 per paid registration)

Wednesday, August 22nd – Saturday, August 25th
Visual Art Exhibit and Opening Reception

Mr. Pete Christus III, a native of Boonville has been selected as the Visual Artist for the 2007 Missouri River Festival of the Arts. An Opening Reception will be held on Wednesday, August 22nd at the Hain House, 412 Fourth Street, one and a half blocks from Thespian Hall.

The exhibit will be open prior to each performance beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the Hain House.

Thursday, August 23rd – 8:00 p.m.

The Music of Rachmaninoff, Tchaikovsky and Brahms

This very special evening will debut the Steinway grand piano, a gift from the Boonslick community to Thespian Hall in honor of 150 years of memories. Nationally acclaimed pianist, Wendy Chen will be featured and will be joined by David Halen, vocalist Miran Halen, Amy Oshiro, Daniel Lee and Mike Chen.

Friday, August 24th – 8:00 p.m.

An Evening of Tango Music

Colorful, fun, tango music will fill Thespian Hall, Among the selections will be “The Seasons in Buenos Aires” which is a follow-up to last year’s popular performance of Vivaldi’s “Four Seasons”.....but with a Latin American twist!

Patron Evening

Following the performance, a special reception is held for the people whose contributions make the Missouri River Festival of the Arts a reality – our Patrons. Held in historic Turner Hall.

Saturday, August 25th – 8:00 p.m.

Classical Delight

Missouri River Festival Chamber Orchestra

The finest musicians from the St. Louis Symphony and around the country perform familiar pieces including opening with Copland’s “Appalachian Spring”, followed by Tchaikovsky’s “Serenade for Springs Op. 48” and concluding with Gershwin’s “Rhapsody in Blue”.

Festival Finale

A Festival tradition for 32 years, the Festival Finale is held following the final performance. Held in historic Turner Hall, it features wine, beer, food and merriment.

FOR TICKETS PLEASE CONTACT
THE FRIENDS OF HISTORIC BOONVILLE

P.O. Box 1776 614 East Morgan
Boonville, Missouri 65233

660/882-7977 or 888/588-1477

www.friendsofhistoricboonville.org